

Please do not make the local broadcasters another entitlement. Satellite radio is a greater public service than the local broadcasters. If the local broadcast media had provided quality programing (like satellite does) there wouldn't be an issue. There is still time for them to wake up to their weaknesses that have caused their current dilemma and make decisions that will improve thier offering.